

book camp

1-9 June 2019

Dragon Press Bindery
Highworth, Wiltshire

Book Camp offers four two-day classes across the event and is for anyone working in the various book arts fields or conservation who is keen to learn more about bookbinding.

Tuition will be by the four founders of Book Camp at this purpose-built bindery set in the beautiful Wiltshire countryside. You are welcome to camp in the spacious grounds or stay in a local B&B.

The programme comprises:

Linkstitch Binding with Michael Burke
Leather-Entry Slipcase with Dieter Räder
Victorian Folder with Philippa Räder
Millimeter Binding with Dominic Riley

Enrollment is flexible: come for one or two classes, return for another or stay for the whole programme.

We will share meals and enjoy informal presentations in the evenings followed by time around the campfire. On the free day mid-point there will be optional visits to nearby places of special interest.

Fees include tuition, materials, hand-outs and meals,. Pitching your tent is free of charge.

We look forward to seeing you in June!
